

HOW TO REGISTER A FOREIGN PROTECTION ORDER

Any individual may register a foreign protection order in the state of Nebraska. To register a foreign protection order, an individual shall:

1. Present a certified copy of the order to the Nebraska State Patrol for the registration of such order.
  - a. A certified copy can be delivered to any local troop area office or it can be mailed to the Nebraska State Patrol at:

Nebraska State Patrol
Attn: DV/SA Program
4130 N.W. 37th
Lincoln, NE 68524

2. Present an affidavit (NSP Form 721) signed by the protected individual stating that to the best of the protected individual's knowledge, the order is currently in effect.
  - a. The affidavit will also provide:
    - i. The protected individual's current address
    - ii. The contact information for the original issuing state and court of jurisdiction; and
    - iii. Additional identifiers of the respondent to qualify entry into the NCIC system.
  - b. A copy of the affidavit is obtainable on the Nebraska State Patrol website, at a local troop area office or at any of Nebraska's domestic violence program providers.

All foreign protection order documentation, including the certified order and affidavit must be forwarded to the Nebraska State Patrol DV/SA Program for processing.

The Nebraska State Patrol shall register an order which has been certified by the issuing state. An order which is inaccurate or is not currently in effect shall be corrected or removed from the registry in accordance with the law of this state.

A fee shall not be charged for the registration of a foreign protection order.

For questions or additional information on how to register a foreign protection order, call the Nebraska State Patrol DV/SA Program at 402-471-1302 or 402-471-1306.
